

August 26, 2009

Wes Hall
P.O. Box 11904
Omaha, NE 68111

Dear Mr. Hall:

Thank you for making the Best Practices Summit 2009 a success.

Based on the feedback received, it is evident that those in attendance enjoyed the opportunity to gain practical, research based knowledge and cutting edge strategies that promote student success. Your enthusiasm and willingness to meet the needs of our principals, teachers, parents and business or community representatives is greatly valued.

Some of the comments from your session were:

- Excellent! Would love to have him speak with our teachers.
- I was very impressed with Mr. Hall. A lot of very powerful information.
- Awesome. You turned lemons into lemonade. You're a living testament that one teacher can change a life. Be the one!
- Excellent
- Wow! He is awesome – great energy! Motivational
- Awesome! O.P.S. needs to have Wes Hall speak to elementary teachers.
- Very good!

Thank you again for assisting in this important endeavor. We appreciate your commitment to the Omaha Public Schools.

Sincerely,

Christina Warner, Coordinator
Staff Development Services